

11th Kirloskar Vasundhara Int'l Film Festival inaugurated in city

ST CORRESPONDENT

reporters@sakaaltimes.com

Pune: Renowned filmmaker Mike Pandey inaugurated the 11th Kirloskar Vasundhara International Film Festival on Wednesday. The festival will continue till January 11, with film screenings being held at various places, including Yashwantrao Chavan Natyagruha, Archive Theatre, Prabhat Road and Kirloskar Campus, Kothrud. This year's theme

On the occasion, the villagers from various districts of the State will be felicitated with Vasundhara Gaurav Puraskar. Among them are residents of nine villages from Sangli district and residents from three villages in Latur district.

has been set as 'Save River, Save Life' and the motive remains to preserve, protect and save the earth for generation next.

Atul Kirloskar, Chairperson, felicitated Dr Vikas Amte for his path-breaking work at Anandwan. Renowned photographer

Dinesh Kumble will inaugurate a photography exhibition organised against the backdrop of this festival, on January 6 at 6 pm at Kirloskar Campus. Kumble will make an audio-visual presentation 'My Encounter with Camera'.

On the occasion of this festival, the villagers from various districts of Maharashtra will be felicitated with Vasundhara Gaurav Puraskar. Among them are residents of nine villages from Sangli district and residents from three villages in Latur district for rejuvenating Agrani and Manjra rivers. Similarly, Baner residents will be felicitated for rejuvenating 18 km of Ramnadi river, starting from Bhukum and perennial in Mula river in Baner.